Inwood Stables held their annual Hunter/Jumper Show the last weekend in November which saw the likes of Casey Truran and Khaleb Tota share the top spot for overall Junior Champion of the entire show. Their coach, Nick DeCosta was the overall Adult Champion, with Suzette Sailsman the Reserve Champion.

The first day of competition held on Saturday comprised mainly hunter disciplined classes where Gold River, owned and ridden by Sarah Wight wore only blue on that day. Wight and Gold River won all three classes that made up the Junior Hunter Division and was crowned Champion Junior Hunter horse. Other worthy horse and pony champions on Saturday were Wiriana who was the Champion Adult Hunter and the beautiful chestnut mare, Allure who was Champion Low Hunter.

Sunday's phase of the competition was all about precision and endurance in the morning with the show jumping followed later in the day where the poise of the riders was showcased. The top show jumpers of the day were Just For Kicks and Sasha Kane who won the Puddle Jumpers
