CERTIFICATE OF DOMICILE
FOR THE
NORTH AMERICAN YOUTH CHAMPIONSHIPS

This is my Certificate of Domicile that I am filing this day in accordance with the Bermuda Equestrian Federation's Selection Procedures for the 2020 FEI North American Youth Championships. A domicile is the place in which the rider has his permanent home and where, whenever he is absent, intends to return, regardless of multiple temporary residences. A rider may have only one domicile. I, _____ am a legal resident of and domiciled in _____ as of January 1, 2020 and hereby intend to maintain my domicile here for the foreseeable future. This statement is to be taken as my declaration of actual legal residence and permanent domicile in this country to the exclusion of all others for purposes of country assignments at the 2020 FEI North American Youth Championships. In the event that I change my domicile prior to April 1, 2020, I will promptly submit a request to change my country assignment to the BEF and copy BEF no later than 5:00PM Eastern Time on April 1, 2020, in accordance with the Selection Procedures. By submitting this Certificate of Domicile, I certify that I have read and understand all information contained herein is correct. I agree that if I am found to have submitted misinformation, I or my minor, may be disqualified from participating in the 2020 FEI North American Youth Championships.
(Print name)
